XXIst Scientific meeting of the ASCCP

Invitation to Attend

It is with pleasure that we invite you to attend the XXIst Scientific Meeting of the Australian Society for Colposcopy and Cervical Pathology Inc (ASCCP), to be held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel Darwin, 13th – 16th August 2009.

The venue for the meeting is Darwin's Crowne Plaza, the city's premier CBD hotel. The Crowne Plaza offers superior service in luxurious surrounds and excellent hotel facilities.

We hope that you will be able to join us for the meeting and look forward to seeing you at the Crowne Plaza Hotel Darwin in August 2009.

The ASCCP

The purpose of the Society is to provide a forum for education and the dissemination of knowledge relevant to the diagnosis and management of the disease processes of the cervix, vagina and vulva. The Society also aims to advise learned bodies and government, and to establish relations with national and international organisations.

ASCCP Committee of Management

President:	Louise Farrell
Immediate past President:	Robert Rome
Vice-President:	David Allen
Secretary:	Peter Russell
Treasurer:	Roy Watson
Committee Members:	Ross Pagano Jeff Tan Ian Etherington Annabelle Farnsworth Gabriele Medley
Chair, XXI st Scientific Meeting:	Chris Dalrymple

Call For Abstracts

Submissions are invited for oral presentations in free communications sessions at the meeting; abstracts should be no more than 250 words and be submitted no later than the 1st June 2009. Submissions should preferably address one of the scientific meeting themes, relating to the lower genital tract, colposcopy, or HPV. Papers submitted by authors considered to be early career investigators will be eligible for the $1000 President's Prize, which is awarded at the discretion of the President.

As far as possible, the data presented in the abstract should not have been published or presented at another major meeting. If previously presented, the author(s) must indicate where and when the data has been reported.

All abstracts will be subjected to peer review by specialists in the field.

It is a condition of submission that the presenting author of the abstract must register his/her attendance and pay the registration fee by the Early bird registration deadline of 1st June 2009.

We regret that abstracts will be excluded from the program and abstract publication if registration is not received by this date.

Dr Quek Swee Chong: Dr Quek Swee Chong is Senior Consultant & Head, Pre-invasive Disease & Screening Unit, Department of Gynaecological Oncology, KK Women's & Children's Hospital, Singapore. His special interest is in the area of lower genital tract pre-invasive disease and he has a passion for teaching and training doctors and healthcare workers in under-privileged areas. He has authored several books and book chapters including "Lower Genital Tract Precancer." His research work includes real-time detection of cervical cancer and pre-cancer, Pap smear screening, HPV testing, and he was involved in clinical trials for HPV vaccines for both GSK and MSD. He has given over 250 lectures, both regionally and internationally in the area of cervical cancer prevention, diagnosis and treatment.

Professor Christopher Crum: Dr Crum was born in Newport News Virginia and received his medical school training at the University of Virginia. He subsequently went to Columbia Presbyterian Hospital in New York to Dr. Ralph Richart's division of gynecologic pathology. There, in collaboration with Richart, members of the zur Hausen Laboratory in Freiburg, and subsequently with Saul Silverstein at Columbia, he published the first papers detailing the relationship of HPV-16 to early cervical and vulvar neoplasia. He subsequently assumed the directorship of the Division of Women's and Perinatal Pathology at Brigham and Women's Hospital in Boston and is currently a Professor of Pathology at Harvard Medical School. In the past ten years he has characterized expression of p63 in the female genital tract with Frank McKeon of Harvard Medical School and most recently, identified a novel candidate precursor to pelvic serous cancer in the distal Fallopian tube. The latter work has coincided with a paradigm shift in the field of ovarian carcinogenesis. Dr. Crum currently resides in Brookline Massachusetts with his wife Tucker and has two married daughters in Brookline and Mobile Alabama.

Professor Walter Prendiville: Dr Walter Prendiville from Dublin, Ireland is Chairman of the Dept of Gynaecology at Adelaide and Meath Hospital incorporating the National Children's Hospital (Tallaght Hospital) and Director of the colposcopy service in that department. He heads the The Royal College of Surgeons in Ireland department of Gynaecology and Obstetrics at the Coombe Women's Hospital and is Director of the Colposcopy service at the Coombe. Cervical Pathology and Colposcopy has been his major research and clinical interest for over two decades.

About Darwin

Darwin is the tropical capital city of Australia's Northern Territory. It has a relaxed outdoor lifestyle and enjoys warm weather all year round. With the sea on three sides of the city, you are sure to catch a glimpse of the harbour from hotels, restaurants and as you navigate throughout the city. It's a young, vibrant and tropical city, with a population that has an average age of around thirty and a population that is rich in cultural diversity.

With a colourful history, Darwin has a diverse population with more than 50 nationalities making up its 100,000 residents including the area's traditional landowners, the Larrakia Aboriginal people. The benefits of such variety are best experienced through the range of restaurants, weekly markets and festivals.

Darwin is also a great base to explore nearby natural attractions including the World Heritage-listed Kakadu National Park, Litchfield and Nitmiluk National Parks, the Tiwi Islands and Arnhem Land.

For tour bookings please call Territory Discoveries on 1800 642 343 and mention the ASCCP Conference to receive information on the Pre and Post touring options. These options are listed on pages 9 and 10 of this brochure.

Please note that registration places are limited and will be allocated on a strictly 'first in' payment basis. In the event that space is unavailable you will be notified immediately. The Privacy Act 2001 provides that before your name and address details can be published on the list of conference delegates, for distribution to fellow delegates or any other party, you must give your consent. If you DO NOT wish to have your name, address and details included in the list of delegates please indicate. Exclude my name from the list of delegates:

Cancellation Policy: An administration fee of $160 per registrant will apply for cancellations after 22/06/2009. Please note that cancellation of accommodation MUST be received in writing to YRD and cancellation fees are at the hotels discretion depending on date of cancellation.

Disclaimer: This conference program is confirmed at the date of printing. However, ASCCP reserves the right to make changes to this program at any time as circumstances dictate. Every effort will be made to provide a program of equivalent standard and value. Insurance Disclaimer: Registration fees do not include insurance of any kind. It is strongly recommended that at the time you register for the conference and book your travel you take out an insurance policy of your choice. The policy should include (1) loss of fees/deposit through cancellation of your participation in the Conference; (2) loss through cancellation of the Conference; (3) loss of international/domestic air fares through cancellation for any reason including force majeure, medical expenses, Loss or damage to person or property, additional expenses; and (4) repatriation should travel arrangements have to be altered. The Conference Secretariat cannot take any responsibility for any participant failing to arrange his or her own insurance.
